

First read by "Casino Baby" Kevin Scrivo at First Casino Baby luncheon at the new Marriott Courtyard Hotel
during the 2009 Ramey reunion....

Written by Bonnie Coombs

My Daddy didn't wager,
And Momma never bet.
But a casino was my birthplace,
And you ain't heard nothin' yet.
I'm a Casino baby!

The Doc stood by the slot machines,
The nurse prepared to get
My Momma on the poker table
While Dad paced near roulette.
I'm a Casino Baby!

How can this be,
you might well ask,
It's mighty strange but true!
I'm not alone, there's others here
Who'll say the same thing too.
We are Casino Babies!

The fact is we were born here,
When the Air Force owned this place.
The Casino was the hospital
At Ramey Air Force Base!
We are Casino Babies!

It's not the way we remember it,
But we're happy it's still here...
So please stand up and raise your glass
As we give a little Cheer –

To the Casino Babies!

