

Ramey Air Force Base Historical Association (RAFBHA) Scholarship 2021-2022

Description

This scholarship fund was established in 2016 in honor and memory of Ken Coombs our founder and Ruben Hernandez our benefactor, as well as the military men and women who served at the Borinquen Field/Ramey Air Force Base during the years, 1939 to 1973. This scholarship is designed and available for a post- high school student to gain training and education in aviation and aerospace.

If you are an analytical, logically minded individual, and you are looking to get established in a rewarding aeronautical/aerospace career, you owe it to yourself to take a few minutes to consider your potential in aviation.

This Ramey Air Force Base Historical Association (RAFBHA) Scholarship helps you cover typical college expenses, such as tuition and books.

SCHOLARSHIP NAME: Ramey Air Force Base Historical Association (RAFBHA) Scholarship

WEBSITE ADDRESS: www.rameyafb.net

CONTACT PERSON: Joyce Lanier

E-MAIL ADDRESS: jlanier466@gmail.com

NUMBER OF AWARDS: One scholarship per school year

MAXIMUM AMOUNT: $1,000 - RAFBHA will make the payment jointly to the recipient and university or institute

Eligibility:

1. High school graduate
2. High school academic achiever of 2.75 or better
3. U.S. citizen and Puerto Rico resident. Student's residency and citizenship status are determined by the institute of application.
4. Demonstrate a desire to pursue a career in aeronautics and/or aerospace, good in knowledge of science and math as verified by a current transcript.
5. Accepted as a full-time student as determined by the university or the institute of application
6. Proficient in English
7. Willing to overcome extraordinary obstacles while striving to reach his/her goals.
8. May serve as a role model to others.

ELIGIBILITY